

better ideas, then I think that during this three-day stay we'll be able to begin looking at alternate sources or alternative methods in which to bring them to the Legislature. So I would approve of the bracket motion.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Madam President and members of the body, I'm sorry if my voice rose and people took what I was saying personal because it was not meant personal. I have not indicated and will not say that anybody has done anything that is wrong or trying to pull anything, fast maneuvers. So I just went out in the rotunda and talked with Gene Severens who is the attorney for the Center of Rural Affairs and Trent Nowka who represents the Farm Bureau and they agree that the bracket until the 17th (sic) would be fine. They just didn't want the bill to get in a position that we would not advance it or have the time, and I assured him that we would have the time to get the bill advanced and the three days aren't going to make that much difference. So I would ask you to support the motion to bracket.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Thank you, Senator Haberman. If there are no objections, the bill is bracketed until Thursday the 20th. Are we ready for 956?

CLERK: Madam President, LB 956 was introduced by Senators Schmit, Pirsch and Sieck. (Title read.) The bill was introduced in January this year. It was referred to the Judiciary Committee. The bill was advanced to General File. There are Judiciary Committee amendments pending, Madam President. (AM2296 found on page 1152 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Senator Hoagland, to the committee amendments.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Mr. Speaker...Madam President and colleagues, LB 956 is a bill brought to us by Senator Schmit and Senator Pirsch and LB 956 deals with the subject of restitution pertaining to people that have been sent to prison as a condition of parole. Now, the Judiciary Committee heard the bill, and in cooperation with Senator Pirsch's staff and other interested parties, drafted a series of amendments that are set out in your bill book. Now, what these amendments do basically is they adopt
